Attention: Rahul Sood

Dear Mr. Sood:

Subject: Account number 758458
Alternative Assessment Procedure for Interjurisdictional Trucking

Your application to join the Alternative Assessment Procedure (AAP) for Interjurisdictional Trucking has been accepted effective February 22, 2017.

I have informed the Workers' Compensation Board(s) of Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Quebec and Ontario that you will be paying premiums to WorkSafeBC for coverage for yourself and your B.C. resident workers.

Participation in the AAP is for a full calendar year and mid-year changes will not be permitted. To withdraw from the AAP, a firm must provide written notice to the Assessing Board and each Registering Board prior to the commencement of the applicable calendar year. The firm will then be withdrawn from the AAP effective January 1 of the next calendar year.

If you have any questions, please contact our Employer Service Centre during regular business hours toll free at 1 888 922-2768 or 604 244-6181, Monday through Friday.

Yours truly,

Avjit Mundi
